A PRETTY WEDDING.

Mr. E. Lacy Clark and Miss Mamie Furgerson United in Marriage.

This morning at 11:30 o'clock, in St. Andrews Episcopal church, Mr. E. Lacy Clark and Miss Mamie Furgerson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. J. D. Miller officiating.

The church was prettily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The ushers were the first to enter, Mr. Thomas Glascock and Mr. Eugene McNairy entered from the rear door, followed Mr. Bartlett Webster and Mr. Clarence Bogart. The four gentlemen arranged themselves on either side of the altar. Following the ushers came Miss Mamie Furgerson leaning on the arm of her bridesmaid, Miss Bessie Howard.

The bride wore a dark tan going-away dress and carried a bunch of beautiful bride and pearl roses, from which long streamers of white ribbon fell.

The bridesmaid wore a steel gray dress and carried a lovely bouquet of La France roses, fastened with pink ribbon.

Mr. Clark, accompanied by Mr. R. G. Beall, came out of the vestry room and met the bride at the altar.

While the couple were plighting their troth, Miss Lizzie Crocker very sweetly played "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

After the ceremony the newly married couple left for Hillsboro where they will visit Mr. Clark's people. They will be at home here after the 18th.

The Telegram, together with a host of friends, wishes them much happiness and joy.

Fourth Car of Provisions.

There will pass through Greensboro Friday Baltimore and Ohio Car No. 39435, handsomely decorated with Cuban and United States flags. The car is being forwarded via the Southern railway and Baltimore and Ohio's fast freight line to New York.

This is the fourth car of provisions sent from Atlanta by the Atlanta Journal to the starving Cubans, and the railroads are handling the cars free of all expense to New York, from which point they are forwarded by the Ward Line steamers.

This shows that the newspapers are ever ready to listen to appeals of suffering whether it is on our own shores or others.

HOPES FOR EARLY ACTION.

Discussion on the Resolutions in the Senate.

SPANISH MINISTER RECALLED.

The House Adopted the Majority Report by an Overwhelming Vote, The Situation Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 14—The president's callers this morning included Secretaries Bliss, Alger and Long and Senators Faulkner and Cullom. Alger and Long called to see Mr. McKinley for consultation over the latest plans of the army and navy for the inauguration of hostilities.

When Senator Cullom left the White House he said he was certain the senate would not pass the Cuban resolutions today. He also said it was only a question of a few days when both houses would agree upon a resolution which would result in war.

FOR ARMED INTERVENTION.

The Telegram received the following message at eight o'clock last night and its contents were given to the people by bulletin. There are, however, a number of readers of this paper who did not see it and we print it this afternoon:

Washington, April 13, 7:48 p. m.—After the most exciting scene in many years the house rejected the minority report by a vote of 150 to 191. The majority report was then adopted by a vote of 324 to 20. This is equivalent to a declaration of war.

SPANISH MINISTER RECALLED.

Washington, April 14—The Spanish minister has been recalled. He leaves the interests of his country in charge of the French ambassador.

LEE'S TESTIMONY.

Washington, April 14—The testimony of General Lee before the senate committee on foreign relations, made public today, constitutes a book of six hundred and fifty pages and includes not only the testimony taken since the Maine disaster but much that was taken before and running back a year or more.

The statement which contains the greatest current interest is that on the 12th General Lee said he was informed on very good authority that the Spaniards had placed two rows of torpedoes just at the mouth of Havana harbor within the past two months subsequent to the Maine disaster and that the switchboard is in Morro Castle.

He had no information of the placing of torpedoes before the Maine was destroyed or regarding the purchase abroad by Spain. He had no reason to suppose that the harbor was mined at all before the Maine disaster. Weyler's letter led him to believe that mines were placed previous to the Maine incident.

THE PRESIDENT'S PREFERENCE.

Washington, April 14—The Mangrove has been ordered to Norfolk to get supplies for the cruisers at Key West.

A committee from the Senate consisting of Allison, Aldrich, Gorman, Faulkner and Gray held a long conference with the president regarding the action of the senate on the resolutions. The president requested no action until tomorrow. He has carefully analyzed the resolutions of the house and the senate and expressed a preference later for the house resolutions.

There is a strong contrast between the meeting today and that of yesterday. There are few members on the floor and the galleries are deserted.

WEAK AND PUERILE.

Washington, April 14—A memorial asking for the repeal of the navigation laws in the event of war so that American ships can fly foreign flags was referred to the committee on commerce on motion of Senator Hale.

Senator Penrose had read to the senate a telegram from Philadelphia calling the house resolutions dish water and demanding the passage of the senate declarations.

Senator Turner began a speech on the Cuban resolutions in the advocacy of armed intervention immediately. He said the president was weak and puerile.

Senator Hoar will follow Senator Turner. Conservative senators have decided to make a fight for the house resolutions and will act in concert to that end. An effort is being made to have the senators entertaining different views unite upon the majority report with orders to secure an early action. Conferences looking to this end have been in progress all day.

Chairman Davis says the committee will push the Cuban resolutions with all diligence and hopes for an early action. Those who favor an early action are disposed to hold continuous sessions if any disposition is shown to delay by debate. The more radical members say they have votes enough to adopt the Turpie amendment recognizing the Cuban Government. Those who think this possible are of the opinion that the house and senate will then compromise on substantially the majority resolutions of the senate committee on foreign relations.

A THOUSAND MULES.

Washington, April 14—The transportation department has just given an order for the purchase of a thousand mules.

NEGOTIATIONS PENDING.

New York, April 14—Negotiations are pending today for the purchase of the New York and Paris of the American line.

NEW GUNS ARRIVED.

New Rochel, April 14—The new guns arrived at Fort Slocum and will be added to the Strategic Point equipment. Submarine mines are being placed in the sound.

A WAR CORRESPONDENT.

New York, April 14—War Correspondent McHugh, of the London Telegraph, has arrived on the Majestic and expects to accompany the American fleet.

AT CHICAMAUGA.

Chattanooga, April 14—The Twenty-fifth infantry arrived here today and will go into camp at Chicamauga this afternoon. This is the first regiment of army forces which will occupy the historic battlefield.

MAY STAY IN SESSION ALL NIGHT.

Washington, April 14—The feeling prevails that the senate will stay in session all night unless a time to vote is set. Expect to set some time tomorrow.

HOAR UPHOLDS MCKINLEY.

Washington, April 14—Senator Hoar declared that he approves of what the president has done and of what he has refrained from doing. He likes the president for holding out for peace so long as there was any hope for peace with honor. Senator Hoar says that persons who suffer most by modern war are not the men who provoke the war.

FOUR STEAMERS CONTRACTED FOR.

Washington, April 14—Secretary of Navy Long has contracted for the St. Paul, St. Louis, New York and Paris, four of the American Line steamers. They are to be returned after the war and owners paid for all damage sustained.

Changed to Key West.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 14—Key West and not Chicamauga is to be the front of the army. The change was made in a twinkling.

To Leave Cuba.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, April 14—Advises just received here from the city of Santiago, Cuba, say that many families have combined to charter a British steamer for the purpose of transporting them to Jamaica until the end of hostilities between the United States and Spain.

In the Montana Mountains.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Blackfoot, Mont., April 14—The boomer rush to cede the mineral strip of the Blackfoot reservation began early this morning when the six o'clock signal to start was given. The company of United States cavalry that has been holding the seekers after riches in cheek gave way as the snow is six feet deep in the mountains. The boomers have abandoned their horses and are proceeding on snow shoes.

WHAT GIBBONS CAN PROVE.

Thinks he Can Fasten the Crime of the Maine Disaster.

London, April 14—The Daily Mail publishes this morning an interview with Joseph Panell Gibbons, the submarine expert, in which he ridicules the Spanish denials of his statement as to the sale by him of submarine mines to Spain, and declares that he can prove that the United States warship Maine was wilfully and deliberately blown up.

What is more, according to the Daily Mail's report, he thinks it possible to reduce the explosion to the act of two men, or even to one individual.

Revolutionary Demonstration at Valencia—What London Afternoon Papers Say.

Madrid, April 14—The Spanish cabinet minister announces that should President McKinley notify Spain to evacuate Cuba, the Spanish government will most emphatically refuse and that it is fully prepared to take the consequences.

WHAT LONDON PAPERS SAY.

London, April 14—The afternoon papers today will print long comments on the evil of leaving the issue "peace or war" in the hands of congress. Not one of the papers, however, question the duty of the United States to intervene in Cuba, but they are disposed to criticize the methods proposed.

The Westminster Gazette says: "The scene in the house and senate are, in the main, hardly edifying, but they are the inevitable results of the peculiar provisions of the constitution, which disarm the Executive and compel the last steps in the most perilous crisis to be taken in blazing publicity."

REVOLUTIONARY DEMONSTRATION.

London, April 14—According to a special dispatch this afternoon from Madrid, there was a big revolutionary demonstration at Valencia last evening.

QUIET IN HAVANA.

Havana, April 14—All is very quiet here today. Business is being transacted in all circles. Hot weather prevails. People are discussing the suspension of hostilities and President McKinley's message to congress.

WAR INEVITABLE.

Madrid, April 14—The newspapers all regard war as inevitable.

STILL FIGHTING IN CUBA.

Havana, April 14—Despite the suspension of hostilities it is officially reported that several skirmishes have taken place in Santa Clara. Word received from St. Thomas reports that there is great dissatisfaction over the stopping of the mail service.

MAJ. GUTHRIE IS A JINGO.

He Blows a Drummer Up From The Outside About Spain.

Maj. William A. Guthrie is something of a jingo and very much of a humorist. He has no patience with the President's policy in dealing with Spain or with Spain's treatment of Cuba and he was saying so in pretty forcible language at the Yarbrough, when a drummer who was very wise in his own conceit walked up and made a few remarks characteristic of men of his wisdom.

"I approve of everything the President has done," he said. "We've got no cause for war. And as to Fitzhugh Lee, he's made an ass of himself. He talks too much. He had no business while in Havana, opening his mouth in regard to the condition of affairs."

"Right you are, my friend," said the Major, who can, of all men be most sarcastic when he tries. "We've got not right talking about it anywhere. The Spaniards say we are hogs, we can grunt but we have no right to talk."

This gave the drummer rather a setback, for he had enough sense to see he was being made fun of.

"Well, certainly, you can't deny," he ventured, "that we had no right to send the Maine to Havana."

"Why of course we didn't! Do you know, my friend, this is a dangerous practice—letting our war vessels go out to sea. They ought, under no circumstances, to be allowed more than three miles from shore. As well say a man has a right to take his wagon from his barnyard out into the road and use it. Any man who would do such a thing ought to be indicted. No, sir, our ships are for ornament and not for use. The Maine should never have been sent as far away from home as Havana, and the American boy should keep his mouth shut."

The drummer didn't open his mouth again to the Major on the Spanish-American situation.—News and Observer.

THE POPE UPSET.

Prays That His Pontificate May Not End in the Smoke of Battle.

London, April 14—The Rome correspondent of the Daily News says: The Pope is exceedingly upset by the latest developments of the Hispano-American question, which seems turning in a way he had hoped and tried to avert this morning. This morning, having said mass in the Sistine chapel, he turned to those around him and exclaimed: "I have prayed God with the whole force of my being, and with the deepest fervor, to avert this sad war, and not to allow my pontificate to end in smoke of battle. Otherwise I have implored the Almighty to take me to Himself that I may not behold such a sight."

The Pope has dispatched to Emperor Francis Joseph in answer to a telegram from His Majesty, a message in Italian, thanking him for his kindness and for the way in which he had responded to the Pope's request. The Pontiff begged him to make a last trial by using his good offices with the heads of other States to spare the world the horrors of war. As is patent to all, Leo XIII. has done everything humanly possible, but war is now considered almost upon us even by the most optimistic.

President McIver, of the Normal and Industrial College, returned home yesterday afternoon.

TYPICAL.

How long would it be before the democratic "silverites" would control the legislature, pass, a Mississippi or South Carolina election law and then throw off the silver mask with everybody disfranchised except themselves?

The populists in this county do not want fusion with democrats on any terms. Nor will they have it, and upon the first indications of such a movement they will go by the hundred straight into the republican camp for refuge and protection, from a return to their former slavery—in which they know their last estate must be worse than their first.

The writer of this is a populist, straight and unadulterated, and believes in the principles of the party, but believes first in securing his political liberty, to vote as he pleases and have that vote counted as cast.—Henry E. King in Progressive Farmer.

The above effusion is printed simply because it reveals in every asinine line of it the animus of your true blue populist statesman. The writer is evidently a populist, and several other things, "straight and unadulterated" as he says. The populist statesman, in the main, is a man who lacks the brains to even attain unto the distinction of constable or magistrate in the democratic party. His elevation in the populist party has fully confirmed his previously conceived ideas that his was a case of great abilities over looked. He therefore hates the democratic party as only a man of small brain and large prejudices can hate. The writer above is a member of the state executive committee of the populist party. He is fairly representative of populist brains and populist methods. He has the bilious whine that is the earmark of all his kind. He declares that the democrats would "pass a Mississippi or South Carolina election law" with "everybody disfranchised except themselves." Does the writer mean to say that only democrats are able to read and understand a passage of the constitution? Cannot that savior of his country to whom the initiative and referendum are but as crystal streamlets and from whose massive brain wise schemes of statecraft rise like votive incense stand a simple educational qualification? Cannot the political marksman who can hit an octopus in the most vulnerable part of his anatomy a half mile away find the slot in the ballot box?

With characteristic good sense and modesty General Lee put an end to the ovation business. He is wise. Even just approval and deserved enthusiasm may be pushed too far.

It is to be supposed that once more a cable of double and twisted harmony has transformed Governor Russell and Senator Butler into a sort of political Siamese Twins.

The Hon. W. J. Bryan would be more popular in North Carolina if he would speak less of the "reform forces." The perfume of "reform" is not grateful in this neck of the woods. "Reform" here suggest brainless howling, gross mismanagement of public affairs, cheap demagoguery and general political cussedness.

COULD WAR MAKE IT WORSE?

Congressman Skinner, in speaking of the feeling in North Carolina with reference to war, says:

"The south has everything to lose in war; yellow fever, arresting of developing industries; demoralization of labor and the flower of the south going to war and leaving the country in the hands of the negro and scalawags."

While the south does not want war so far as North Carolina is concerned, it is officially now "in the hands of the negro and scalawags" and "carpet baggers" with a negro in absolute control of the white school for the blind, a "scalawag in the governor's chair, a 'carpet bagger' in the United States senate. So far as internal government is concerned, could war make it worse in North Carolina?—News & Observer.

The above comes very close to what, in the parlance of marksmen, is termed the bull's eye. We have scalawags and carpet baggers a plenty: a charge of bird shot fired into the late sweet-scented legislature would have winged a round dozen.

Chairman Caldwell is now in a position to appreciate the feelings of the late Major Wilson. He is also fully equipped for addition to the multitudinous staff of the new populist organ.

THE COMING ELECTION.

Views of "Taxpayer" as to What Kind of Men are Needed.

Communicated.

As the time for another municipal election is close upon us, when the citizens are called on to select men to represent them in the affairs connected with the city, and in order that intelligent selections may be made would it be amiss to mention some things of interest to the tax payers in selecting the different officers for another year? A man's private record can not be assailed, but his public record is said to be public property.

The office of mayor should be filled by a man of large calibre, one who thinks and acts for himself, not afraid to enforce the laws that are enacted for him, nor one who is selected by any one man; neither should a man be put in this important position because he is a political pet, nor one who will show favor to any party, but who will do his whole duty irrespective of party or the feeling of any man. His oath should be his guide, not what this or that one will think or say. No man should be selected that strives for the position just for the money he gets as a salary, nor who has no other business by which he is making a living.

The writer does not believe in clicks or combines, neither does he favor a few men getting together under the shade trees of the public streets to select their favorites for mayor and aldermen, just because they think politically as they do and are in their circle—not taking into consideration their fitness or qualifications for such a position.

Then the mayor of Greensboro should be a man who has the respect of his people and one who, when occasion requires can make himself heard, felt and honored by any assembly. A mayor should be socially and morally from the best, and who would be sought after and honored by all classes. If party lines are to be drawn in municipal elections no man should be selected for an office who will stoop to the low, dirty tricks of the political parties of this day.

Our chief of police and tax collector should be, by all means, a man who will not countenance anything immoral or that transgresses the laws which he is to uphold and to enforce, neither should he be placed in such office because he has a "political pull," nor should he be a man that anybody would hesitate to call on for assistance, nor a man who does not respect his position enough to wear an insignia of office as required of other police, and not kept in office on account of his political pull and the money he advances for the city.

Our police force, too, should be men of the best type of manhood, physically and morally, and whatever else that goes to make a gentleman. No man should occupy this position who is not a success as a man and one who has not been able to make a living at any other occupation.

A man should not be allowed to serve on the police force because he can influence more votes than some other fellow, neither should a man be a policeman who will not conscientiously give his whole time to the city's interests; not one who has other business and spends a part of his time running his own affairs, at the same time being paid by the city for his entire services, thereby making a success of his heretofore unsuccessful business and a failure as a police. Neither do we want men as policemen who will pass by bar rooms and restaurants night after night which are running in full blast (in the back room) after hours for closing, as well as on Sundays, and who will rest easy and not try to catch up with the gambling dens that now infest our city and excuse themselves by saying they know nothing of it. How do others find such things out? Man is a failure at the best, but give us policemen for another year who will put down the sale of whiskey after legal hours, and the gambling places, together with the houses of ill fame that are in the corporate limits. No man can be a good policeman who caters to any man or set of men.

The board of aldermen should be selected from the property holders and taxpayers. No man should be eligible who is not a property holder and taxpayer, and who has proven himself a successful business man. He should not be given the place just because he is one of the shade tree street corner few; nor because he is a good political worker, or is connected with a certain family or church. No man should be allowed to occupy such a position who seeks it for the purpose of using his influence to improve the property owned by himself or some one of his family. Above all, no man should be eligible to the position of alderman who represents another corporation or corporations who are continually, at "logger-heads" with the city and whose interest is that detrimental to the city. "No man can serve two masters," &c.; and again, no man, nor set of men, should be allowed to occupy such a position as alderman of Greensboro who will so far forget the interests they are expected to protect as to allow their secret order feelings to get so far away with them as to select men to serve the city at a good salary who are not only incompetent, but objectionable.

Aldermen should be men who are far above allowing petty things to influence them to do what their better judgment tells them is not for the best interest of the city which they are expected to represent. The tax payers should come together and show their interest in the progress of the city by selecting the men to represent them another year who will not listen to the slick tongue of the schemer and be led away by him to such an extent as to put still heavier burdens of taxation on them, especially when the city reaps no benefit from the increase.

The writer believes in progress, but not at the expense of the tax payer for the benefit of private individuals.

It is said by those who are in a position to know, that Greensboro is making more progress than any other town in the state; then isn't it high time we were laying aside those petty village tactics in selecting officers and instead have our best and most honorable men at the helm to direct the affairs? Politics in municipal affairs in Greensboro is a failure. Then let us lay it aside and select our best men, irrespective of party.

It is hoped that the time from now until the first Monday in May will be improved and that good men will be brought out for mayor, aldermen and policemen. It is our duty not to neglect this matter, longer and allow political schemers to be put upon us. Why not call a convention of the tax payers and talk the matter over and devise a way to have good men, irrespective of party?

Tax Payer.

Sentenced to Raleigh Prison.

Atlanta, Ga., April 13—Charles E. Shipp, of Paulding county, was found guilty in the United States court here this afternoon of counterfeiting and sentenced to three years in the Raleigh, N. C., penitentiary, and to pay a fine of $100.

Shipp was charged with stripping $5 bills, and passing them off to merchants in Paulding county. The bills were split half in two and thin tissue paper then pasted on either the back or front of them, as the case required, each half being passed as a full $5 note.

Pritchard's Plan Turned Down.

Washington, April 13—Secretary of the Treasury Gage has promised to appoint C. D. Jones as collector of customs at Beaufort, N. C., to succeed Davis, whose term expires today. Both Pritchard and Skinner endorsed Davis.

Graham, N. C., Nov. 23, 1898.
Mrs. Joe Person:—Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the wonderful cure your Remedy made on my little daughter, some eight years ago. She was afflicted with some blood impurity which resulted in boils and sores on her head, face and neck, which troubled her severely and continuously for 18 months, more or less. After trying different remedies for a long time without any permanent relief, a friend advised me to try your medicine. After a short use of it she began to improve and when she had taken about eighteen bottles the sores and boils were entirely healed, there has never been any return of them, and she seems now to be entirely well. I consider your Remedy one of the very best blood purifiers on the market.

Yours very truly,
J. H. WATSON.

HANCOCK'S BROTHER BOUNCED.

Director Hewitt Succeeds Him as Road Master.

The Caucasian innocently remarks:
"Governor Russell last week appointed D. W. Patrick, of Greene county, president of the A. & N. C. railroad."

This statement covers the ground in general, but there were a few details and formalities necessary to carry the governor's desire into effect.

For instance, the directors had to meet, and this they did in Newbern Tuesday night, when Patrick, according to instruction from His Excellency, was formally elected.

Maj. Frank Brown, one of the directors who attended the meeting, returned to the city last evening. Maj.
Brown says the meeting was entirely harmonious.

Mr. Chas. Hancock, a brother of Robert Hancock, also felt the touch of the governor's power and authority.
Instead of being rewarded Mr. Chas.
Hancock was punished. The only charge against him was his relationship to ex-President Hancock. For this he was removed from the position of road master.

T. W. Hewitt, one of the directors, was elected road master to succeed Hancock. This was a part of the deal to make Patrick president. The salary is $70 per month.

A resolution was unanimously adopted thanking S. L. Dill for the faithful discharge of his duties, as acting president of the road.

The board was in session nearly four hours, and adjourned to meet in Newbern May 12th.

A number of changes will be made in the management of the road.—Morning Post.

EFFIGY BURNERS ARRESTED.

Two Young Men at Greenville Get Into Trouble.

District Attorney Bernard brings the news from Greenville that on Monday night a number of young men in the act of burning McKinley in effigy when an officer interfered and arrested two of the leaders, Ambrose Johnson and a man named Smith.

The others, engaged in the affair were not caught, Johnson and Smith have not yet been put on trial. They will be fined for violating the town ordinances, and it is just possible that they will also be indicted under the State law.

Those engaged in the burning, Mr.
Bernard says, do not represent either the sentiment or the best element of the people of Greenville.—News and Observer.

Raleigh Thirty-Three Years Ago.

Thirty-three years ago yesterday, April 13, 1865, the city of Raleigh was surrendered to Gen. W. T. Sherman, and on that date Sherman's army took possession of the city.

Mr. George Tonoffski now has in his possession the first money spent in the city by the Federal soldiers. Mr.
Tonoffski sold to the first soldiers who arrived in the city a chew of tobacco for 25 cents; a ginger cake for 10 cents and a loaf of bread for 50 cents. The money is paper, being the "shin-plaster" variety. Mr. Tonoffski wrote the date of the surrender on the 25 cent
note at the time.—Morning Post.

Southern Business.

The prospect of war has not yet prostrated business in any part of the country, though it has undoubtedly put a check upon future speculative undertakings. The Chattanooga Tradesman, says:

General industrial activity is still manifest in the Southern States. Alabama reports a sash, door and blind factory; Arkansas, a land and timber development company; Florida, another large tobacco factory; Georgia, a 20-ton cotton oil mill;
Louisiana, a lumber mill; Mississippi,
a chair factory, owned by Chicago parties, and an electric light plant;
North Carolina, a roller flouring mill, a $50,000 cotton mill, a factory for making patent folding crates, a sawmill and a veneer mill; South Carolina, a large cotton gin; Tennessee, a $100,000 cotton mill, a lumber company devoted to the German export trade and a handle factory; a mattress man-chine company, an acetylene gas machine works, a large petroleum refinery and the rebuilding of a $150,000 electric light plant lately burned; West Virginia, an engine works with $200, 000 capital, a window glass factory, and an electrical supply works.—Philadelphia Record.

The Inquiry is Pertinent.

Mr. Ayer, in promulgating his plan of fusion, says any contract entered into by one party with another should extend to and include the next two years. According to this, is he not under obligations to stick this year by his contract with the republicans made in 1896? If he goes back on the republicans this year, how are we to know he and Butler & Co., will not go back on the democrats in 1900? As the Butler contingent is in the field for sale to the highest bidder, now as heretofore, and will be hereafter, how can honest people be expected to rely on their promises, or contemplate their "propositions" with any degree of toleration.—Raleigh Post.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers.
No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at
C. E. Holton's drug store.

Johnson & Dorsett call your attention to their new line of ladies' and misses' Oxford ties.

Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson was at the Benbow last night enroute home from Yanceyville, where he has been holding court.

Lindau makes an exceedingly attractive display of cigars in his window today. He also has an attractive ad in his space in this paper. Read it.

The University Dramatic Club returned from Reidsville this morning where they played last night. They left for Chapel Hill on the 8:50 train.

Mrs. J. B. Guthrie and daughter, Miss Sallie, of Burlington, passed through today enroute to Siler City and other points in Chatham to visit relatives.

The Greensboro Rustic and Artistic Manufacturing company have placed one of their rustic novelties—a summer house, in Mrs. Watlington's front yard on South Elm street. It looks quite inviting to the passer-by. Be sure and take a look at it.

A great show, one that is indorsed by the press everywhere as being a splendid production of "Faust." It is in every way first-class and with the entire effects brought out by electricity will make it more powerful than anything ever seen on our stage. Seats are now on sale at Gardner's. Prices, 25, 50 and 75cts.

Chick's Players.

Chick's International Stars played to a good sized crowd last night, notwithstanding the inclement aspect of the weather. The program rendered was purely vaudeville, with the exception of the animated pictures by the cinematograph, and every piece rendered was good. The illustrated songs, "In the Baggage Coach Ahead" and "The Wayward Daughter" were very touching, each scene being truly illustrated by colored pictures as the song progressed. The comedy part by the "coon" is a great feature. Tonight an entire change of program will be presented, and all who attend may feel assured in advance that an enjoyable evening awaits them.

Notes of The Prowler

There is excitement now. Talk is about to resolve itself into action. There has been a great deal of talk, but talk is cheap and many people have thought there was not powder enough behind it to raise a smoke. In fact, part of the talk has been about smokeless powder!

The house said last night "Cuba must be free; and if Spain don't take her crime-stained and grimy hands off Cuba's neck, we'll send the boys down and choke her off."

The senate will say "me too," and then the Spanish war dogs must be muzzled or shot for hydrophobia. So it begins to look as if war—bold, grim and reeking—is standing on the threshold. I was ruminating the other day about the possibility and probability of war at this time and I concluded it was bound to come. This nation has lived as long in peace as most nations have lived in the past without fighting and in this case it looks as if the record will not be broken.

But we shall see. The clouds are very dark and there are low mutterings of the thunder of righteous indignation at Spain's treatment of her Cuban subjects. The lost "situation" seems to have been found and congress has opened on the trail.
